1. In this Assignment "support order" means a provision in an order for the payment of money as support or maintenance and includes, but is not limited to: (a) periodic payments; (b) lump sum payments; (c) arrears; (d) interest on arrears.

2. For consideration received, the Recipient assigns to the Minister, the support order made in favour of the Recipient under the assignment on 03.11.98 (date of assignment) in One Court Street Div. (name of court) at 161 Bayview Ave. (address of court).

against

Raymond Erwin
(Name of respondent)

(the "Payer"), Court File No. 13478/98

3. This Assignment of the support order includes the right of the Minister to have the support order, and relating support deduction order, if any, enforced by the Director of the Family Support Plan (FSP) under the Family Support Plan Act (FSPA).

4. This Assignment applies to any variations of the support order, by court order or without agreement, made before or after the date of this Assignment.

5. This Assignment begins on 01.11.98 (date) and ends the date the Recipient is no longer eligible to receive assistance under the General Welfare Assistance Act (GWAA) or a benefit under the Family Benefits Act (FBA).

6. The Recipient agrees that only the Minister may end this Assignment at any time.

7. The Recipient agrees that when this Assignment ends, any money owing under the order and any interest on the arrears accumulated during the period the Recipient received benefits under the FBA or assigned under the GWAA remain the property of the Minister, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 8.

8. The Recipient agrees that the Director under the FSPA pay the Minister any arrears and interest on the arrears referred to in paragraph 7, in the amount provided by the FSPA Act.

9. The Recipient promises and agrees:

- (a) the support order is in full force and effect;
- (b) the Assignment cannot be ended by the Recipient, except under paragraph 5;
- (c) to not enter into any agreement with the Payer which would reduce or cancel any money owing to the Minister under this Assignment, without the consent of the Minister;
- (d) to provide the Minister with any relevant information requested with respect to the support order or the Payer;
- (e) to cooperate with the Minister by taking any legal steps to enforce the support order, including, but not limited to, filing the support order or any other document with the Director under the FSP;
- (f) to not withdraw the support order from the Director under the FSP until the Minister consents to the withdrawal; and
- (g) to immediately tell the Minister (through the Recipient's field worker or Parental Support Worker) when the Recipient receives a variation application, a request to suspend a support deduction order, a notice of the termination of a support obligation, or any other legal document or correspondence concerning the support order.

- (h) to pay the Minister for any loss of money caused by the Recipient breaching this Assignment or any term of it.
10. The Recipient agrees that the Director of the FSP pay any money owing to the Minister in The Treasurer of Ontario, to the credit of the Minister.
